

This chart is an approximate guide to magnification. To use: start with the box at the top and cover the rest of the page. If you cannot read this please scroll down to find a magnification strength (circled) which is more comfortable. Or start with a different passage and note the relative increases between the different strengths shown alongside each passage of text.

START HERE - 10pt NEWSPAPER TEXT

‘It’s only when you look at an ant through a magnifying glass on a sunny day that you realise how often they burst into flames.’
(HARRY HILL, ENGLISH COMEDIAN)

‘It’s only when you look at an ant through a magnifying glass on a sunny day that you realise how often they burst into flames.’ (HARRY HILL, ENGLISH COMEDIAN)

2x

‘It’s only when you look at an ant through a magnifying glass on a sunny day that you realise how often they burst into flames.’ (HARRY HILL, ENGLISH COMEDIAN)

3x

‘It’s only when you look at an ant through a magnifying glass on a sunny day that

4x

‘It’s only when you look at an ant through a magni-

6x

‘It’s only when you

12x